SUBSIDIZED & "BY INCOME" FOR OLDER ADULTS & DISABLED PERSONS usually have income limits and age or disability requirements. Tenants pay approximately 30% of their income for rent, which is available through federal, state, and local housing programs.

CONGREGATE HOUSING private living arrangements with moderate supportive services and common areas of dining, socialization and other activities. These facilities provide at least one daily meal, which is usually included in the monthly fee. Housekeeping services and a variety of social and recreational activities are offered. They are generally meant for individuals who are self-sufficient but need a few services to help them live independently.
